Dear Rita,

Congratulations for starting your own cooking school. It is said that if you do what you enjoy, then you will enjoy what you do. You are proof of how true that statement is. You are lucky to be able to share your gift of cooking with others. It must be a very rewarding to teach someone in the ways of the kitchen. One of the greatest byproducts of your cooking school is that not only are you teaching individuals how to cook, but you are bringing people together. I am sure that once a student of yours leaves, she is excited to share her newfound skill with family and friends. It is so good to see someone follow their heart and live their dreams.

If I can ever be of assistance to you in any state related capacity, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Warm Regards,
